

HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY FORUM

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Philosophy Department at the University of Notre Dame is pleased to announce the inauguration of the History of Philosophy Forum, facilitating world-class research and international collaboration in the history of philosophy. With an exceptionally large cast of scholars carrying out research in the history of philosophy and adjacent areas across seven departments, Notre Dame is one of the top locations for research and studies in the history of philosophy in the United States. We are now welcoming applications to our new Small Grants Program, supporting international scholars with research projects in the history of philosophy that could benefit from a stay at the University of Notre Dame during the academic year 2020-2021.

For more information about the Small Grants Program and
Notre Dame's History of Philosophy Forum, visit <http://historyofphilosophy.nd.edu>

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 7, 2020